

MARIE MASSEY

Oil Paintings • June 10 - July 29, 2019

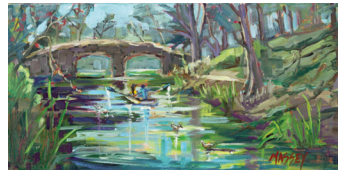

Award-winning artist Marie Massey has been painting professionally for 19 years and teaching the "Painting in Layers" method to adults working in oil and acrylic for seven years. Marie is an avid plein air painter and does 3 to 4 plein air painting events annually. In September 2014, Marie founded the Central Coast Plein Air Painters (CCPAP), a group of 300+ artists living and working on California's Central Coast. Marie coordinates periodic plein air paint outs and produces at least three juried exhibitions for the CCPAP annually, working in cooperation with various local Arts organizations, businesses and galleries. Marie's paintings have been juried into more than 130 National and Regional shows where they have won many awards. Marie's work is in private, corporate and government collections. She is grateful to be represented by select galleries across the US including: The San Francisco Women Artists Gallery; 620 Fine Art Gallery in Pacific Grove, CA; Art of Santa Cruz in Capitola, CA; Deselms Fine Art in Cheyenne, WY; and Independence Gallery in Loveland, CO.
